CYRUS BUCHER

Cyrus Bucher was born near Cornwall, in Lebanon County, Pennsylvania, July 28, 1845. At the age of 17 years he began teaching school and taught six consecutive years in the vicinity of his home.

He was twice married. His first wife was Barbara Dohner to which union two daughters were born, one dying in infancy.

His second marriage was to Leah Gible, to which union thirteen children were born, twin boys dying in infancy. Edward Keefer was also taken into the home at the age of three years and reared to manhood.

In 1882 he moved his family to Fulton County, Illinois, and the next year moved to their farm two miles east of Astoria, where they reared their family to manhood and womanhood, and in 1906 they moved to Astoria, where they resided the remainder of their days.

In business, he was a man among men, public spirited, unselfish and of sterling business qualities, belonging to a class of men who do things, make history, and leave a legacy of knowledge for the benefit of future generations. He was a charter member and director of the Peoples State Bank, organized in 1890, and second vice president at the time of his death. At one time he owned the Astoria Telephone Exchange, and most of the Astoria Electric Light Plant. He was an extensive farmer and orchardist, having at one time 75 acres in fruit.

He was united with the Church of the Brethren in 1863, was elected to the ministry in 1883, and advanced to the Eldership in 1904, serving as a minister 37 years. In all branches of church and educational work, he always took an earnest and active interest. He preached in both German and English, and lived the simple life as taught by Jesus, never allowing his numerous earthly possessions affect his sincerity and simplicity. He was a pioneer in organizing Sunday Schools, both in Pennsylvania and Illinois. He was instrumental in building the Woodland church in 1911, giving a large amount. For seven years he supported a missionary in India. He attended 32 annual Conferences of the Church of the Brethren.

In all these activities his wife, Mrs. Leah Gible Bucher, was a real helpmate, unassuming, industrious, conscientious, and a good mother and homemaker. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gible of Reistville, Pennsylvania, he being a well loved deacon at that place.

To her Christianity was a simple and beautiful fact. She was well known for her hospitality, often preparing a meal for from 25 to 50 friends, who would go from Sunday meeting to their home. A stranger asking for aid never went away without being helped.

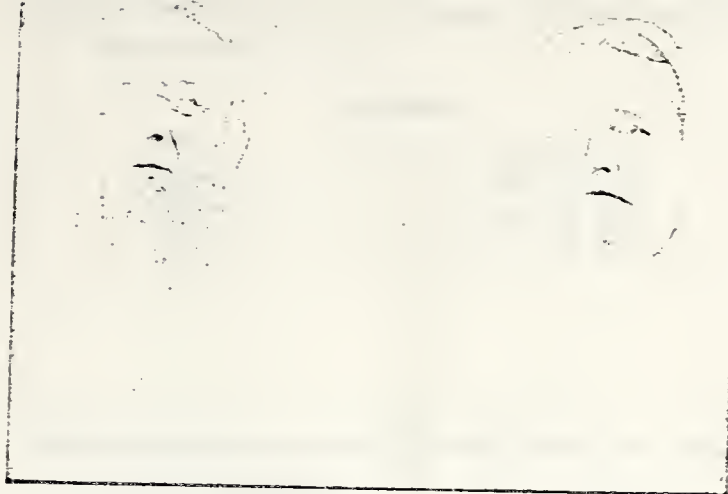

Mr. and Mrs. Bucher celebrated their 50th (Golden) wedding anniversary before Mr. Bucher died.

All of their children settled in and near Astoria, Illinois.
